10 IMAGENETIX, INC.,

11 Plaintiff,

12 v.

13 ROBINSON PHARMA, INC., et al.

14 Defendants.

Case No. SACV15-599 JLS (RNBx)

IMAGENETIX, INC.'S SECOND REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS, DIRECTED TO ROBINSON PHARMA, INC.

15 IMAGENETIX, INC.'S SECOND REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS
16 DIRECTED TO ROBINSON PHARMA, INC.

17 Pursuant to Rules 26 and 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff Imagenetix,
18 Inc. ("Imagenetix") requests that Robinson Pharma, Inc. ("Robinson Pharma"), respond to each of 19 the following requests for production of documents, and produce all responsive documents for 20 inspection and copying within 30 days following the date of service of these requests.
21

22 DEFINITIONS

23 As used herein, the following terms are defined as follows:

24 1. The term "Robinson Pharma," "you," or "your" refers to Robinson Pharma, Inc.
25 along with the organization's predecessor(s) and successor entities, their officers, directors,
26 shareholders, parent and subsidiary companies (whether direct or indirect), affiliates, employees,
27
28

1 agents, attorneys, representatives, and any other persons acting or authorized to act on behalf of
2 them.

3 2. “Accused Products” are defined as the following products: Arthro-7 and Arthro-8.

4 3. “All” should be construed to include the collective as well as the singular and shall 5 mean “each,” “any,” and “every.”
6

7 4. “Any” shall be construed to mean “any and all.”

8 5. “Communications” include but are not limited to emails, voicemails, text messages,
9 instant messages, written correspondence, sales training materials, meeting records, newsletters,
10 brochures, and publications.

11 6. “Document” is defined to be synonymous in meaning and equal in scope of the usage
12 of this term in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34(a) (documents include “writings, drawings,
13 graphs, charts, photographs, sound recordings, images, and other data or data compilations stored in
14 any medium from which information can be obtained either directly or, if necessary, after translation
15 by the responding party into a reasonably usable form.”). A draft or non-identical copy is a separate
16 document within the meaning of this term.
17

18 7. “Electronically stored information” or “ESI” includes all metadata and information
19 that is stored in an electronic medium and is retrievable in a perceivable form including, without 20 limitation, the following:
21

22 a. information that is generated, received, processed, and recorded by computers
23 and other electronic devices;

24 b. internal or external web sites;

25 c. output resulting from the use of any software program, including, without
26 limitation, word processing documents, spreadsheets, database files, charts, graphs and outlines,
27 email, instant messages, text messages, or bulletin board programs, operating systems, source code,
28

1 PRF files, PRC files, batch files, ASCII files, and all miscellaneous media on which they reside and
2 regardless of whether said electronic data exists in an active file, a deleted file, or file fragment;

3 d. activity listings of email receipts and/or transmittals; and

4 e. any and all items stored on computer memories, hard disks, floppy disks, CD-
5 ROM, magnetic tape, microfiche, or in any other vehicle for digital data storage or transmittal, such
6 as, but not limited to, a smartphone, e.g., iPhone, Blackberry, or similar device, and file folder tabs,
7 or containers and labels appended to, or relating to, any physical storage device associated with each
8 original or copy of all documents requested herein.
9

10 8. “Employee” means, without limitation, any current or former officer, director,
11 executive, manager, secretary, staff member, messenger, or agent.

12 9. “Including” is used to emphasize certain types of documents requested and should
13 not be construed as limiting the request in any way.
14

15 10. The phrase “to identify” when referring to a person means to give, to the extent
16 known, the person’s full name, present or last known address, and when referring to a natural person,
17 additionally, the present or last known place of employment. When referring to documents, “to 18 identify” means to give, to the extent known, the (i) type of document; (ii) general subject matter;
19 (iii) date of the document; and (iv) author(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s).
20

21 11. “Or” and “and” should be construed so as to require the broadest possible response.
22 If, for example, a request calls for information about “A or B” or “A and B,” you should produce all
23 information about A and all information about B, as well as all information about A and B
24 collectively.

25 12. “Person” means, without limitation, any natural person, corporation, partnership,
26 limited liability company, proprietorship, joint venture, association, government entity, group or
27 other form of legal entity.
28

1 possession they were found (i.e., the document custodian) and the business address of each
2 document custodian.

3 6. If a document once existed and subsequently has been lost, destroyed or is otherwise
4 missing, you should provide sufficient information to identify the document and state, in writing, the
5 details, including whether the document:
6

- 7 a. is lost or missing;
- 8 b. has been destroyed and, if so, by whom at whose request;
- 9 c. has been transferred or delivered, voluntarily or involuntarily, to another 10 person or entity and at whose request; or
- 11 d. has been otherwise disposed of.

12 7. In each instance in which a document once existed and subsequently is lost, missing,
13 destroyed, or otherwise disposed of, explain the circumstances surrounding the disposition of the 14 document, including, but not limited to:
15

- 16 a. the identity of the person or entity who last possessed the document;
- 17 b. the date or approximate date of the document's disposition; and
- 18 c. the identity of all persons who have or had knowledge of the document's 19 contents.

20 8. If any document responsive to any of these requests is privileged, and the document or any
21 portion of the document requested is withheld based on a claim of privilege pursuant to Rule
22 26(b)(5) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, provide a statement of the claim of privilege and all
23 facts relied upon in support of that claim, including the following information:
24

- 25 a. the reason for withholding the document;
- 26 b. the date of such communication;
- 27 c. the medium of such communication;
- 28

1 d. the general subject matter of such communication (such description shall not
2 be considered a waiver of your claimed privilege);

3 e. the identity of any document that was the subject of such communication and
4 the present location of any such document;

5 f. the identity of the persons involved in such communication;

6 g. the identity of any document which records, refers, or relates to such 7 communication and present location of any such document; and

8 h. the number or numbers of these requests for production of documents to 9 which such information is responsive.

10
11 9. Documents attached to one another should not be separated. Each document requested
12 should be produced in its entirety and without deletion, redaction or excisions, except as qualified by 13 Instruction 8 above, regardless of whether you consider the entire document or only part of it to be
14 relevant or responsive to these document requests. If you have redacted any portion of a document,
15 stamp the word "REDACTED" beside the redacted information on each page of the document which 16 you have redacted. Any redactions to documents produced should be identified in accordance with 17 Instruction 8 above.

19 10. All documents produced should be numbered sequentially, with a unique number on each
20 page, and with a prefix identifying the party producing the document.

21
22 11. Documents should be organized by the request number to which they respond.

23 DOCUMENT REQUESTS

24 Request No. 1:

25 All documents relating to DRM Resources and/or Alpha Health Research.
